

Leaders Who Have Upheld
American Army Tradition

MAJOR GEN. E. E. BOOTH, commander in 4th Division of the Second Army Corps.
(© U. S. Official.)

BRIG. GEN. E. B. WINANS, commanding 64th Brigade of the 32d Division.
(© U. S. Official.)

MAJOR GEN. HARRY J. HATCH, Coast Artillery Section of United States Army.

BRIG. GEN. CHARLES A.
DOYEN,
commanding first Marines
sent to France. Died Oct. 6, 1917.

BRIG. GEN. CHARLES D.
WINN,
commanding 305th Field Artillery of 77th Division.
(© Times Photo Service.)

MAJOR GEN. BENJAMIN
ALVORD,
Adjutant to General Pershing on Headquarters Staff.

MAJOR GEN.
E. M. WEAVER, in command of
United States Coast Artillery.
(© Paul Thompson.)

BRIG. GEN. ROGER D.
WILLIAMS,
commanding 75th Brigade of the 38th Division.

MAJOR GEN. SAMUEL D.
STURGIS.
Took command of 80th Division on Nov. 18, 1918.

BRIG. GEN. B. L. McCAW-LEY, Quartermaster of United States Marine Corps.

MAJOR GEN.
FREDERICK S. FOLTZ, commanding
91st Division of Fifth Army Corps.
(© Harris & Ewing.)

BRIG. GEN. EVAN M.
JOHNSON,
commanding 154th Infantry Brigade of the 77th Division.